

OUR COMMITMENT TO PRIVACY

This privacy policy discloses the privacy practices for <http://portal.accentintl.com> and applies solely to information collected by this web site. Upon your written request, we will notify you of the following:

- What personally identifiable information is collected from you through the web site, how it is used and with whom it may be shared.
- What choices are available to you regarding the use of your data.
- The security procedures in place to protect the misuse of your information.
- How you can correct any inaccuracies in the information.

Information Collection, Use, and Sharing

We are the sole owners of the information collected on this site. We only have access to information that you voluntarily give us via the portal, email or other direct contact from you. We will not sell or rent this information to anyone.

ACCENT treats your personal information as private. Subject to the exceptions set forth below, ACCENT will not share information about you with third-parties without your permission, and will make reasonable efforts to guard your information against unauthorized disclosure.

Partners: ACCENT may share information about you with our partner organizations in order to provide you with services requested by you. For example, we may share information in the course of evaluating your application or facilitating your placement in a program. This information is shared only for the limited purpose of providing the requested service (such as application evaluation or program placement), and may not be used for any other purpose.

Service providers: ACCENT contracts with service providers to perform a variety of services, including hosting this webpage. To the extent any service providers have access to information about you in the course of performing services for ACCENT, they are prohibited from using it for any other purpose.

Law Enforcement / For your protection and ours: ACCENT reserves the right to share information about you where ACCENT believes that such disclosure is necessary to comply with a legal requirement, such as a subpoena or court order, or to protect the rights or property of ACCENT, you, or third-parties.

Your Access to and Control Over Information

You may opt out of any future contacts from us at any time. You can do the following at any time by contacting us in writing at our U.S. address listed on our website:

- See what data we have about you, if any.
- Change/correct any data we have about you.
- Have us delete any data we have about you.
- Express any concern you have about our use of your data.

Your letter should include your full name, address, and telephone number

Security

We take precautions to protect your information. When you submit sensitive information via the website, your information is protected both online and offline. Wherever we collect sensitive information, that information is encrypted and transmitted to us in a secure way. You can verify this by looking for a closed lock icon at the bottom of your web browser, or looking for "https" at the beginning of the address of the web page.

While we use encryption to protect sensitive information transmitted online, we also protect your information offline. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job (for example, billing or customer service) are granted access to personally identifiable information. The computers/servers in which we store personally identifiable information are kept in a secure environment.

Updates

Our Privacy Policy may change from time to time and all updates will be posted on this page. If you feel that we are not abiding by this privacy policy, you should contact us immediately via telephone at 800.869.9291, via email at info@accentintl.com, or by regular mail to ACCENT's U.S. address.
